

EVERYBODY IS PLANNING FOR BIG TIME NEXT WEEK, WITH FESTIVAL OF ALLIES BIG ATTRACTION FOR THE WHOLE WEEK

By DOROTHY B. JOHNSTON.

THESE are at present but one topic interesting El Paso society—the Festival of the Allies, for which all femininity and more men are deep in preparation. One hears of the patriotic celebration for the Red Cross over the tea tables, at committee meetings, out shopping, in the club and on the streets. And it alone saves us from ennui.

The social sphere is, since we have become absorbed in war work, afraid of its own shadow, and refuses to come out broadly in the open with parties. Occasionally a subterfuge affair is slipped over—but it is, oh, so quietly whispered. Even for the younger buds there is little frivolity left. Quite naturally even they are forsaken butterfly kayakers to assume a sedate maturity and voluntarily substitute serious activities for the

FRETFUL BABIES NEED A LAXATIVE

When your baby is cross and fretful the chances are it is constipated and that a mild laxative is all that is necessary to make it comfortable and happy. Inactive bowels are the cause of as much discomfort to children as to older people, and unless the condition is promptly relieved is very apt to develop serious illness.

For children there is nothing that will act more easily than the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that is sold in—our stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It does not gripe and is far from opiate or narcotic drugs, is pleasant to the taste, and positively effective; children like it and take it readily. If you have never tried this simple, inexpensive remedy, get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from your druggist and have it in the house to use the next time any of the children seem out of sorts. A trial bottle can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 456 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

usual resubstituted teas and dances. All have been mustered into the country's service, unofficially, but no less enthusiastically than the brothers. Work in the various humane movements can no longer be stigmatized as mere fad. Sincerity in the great work is attested by efficient results, to which everyone seems bent to contribute her share.

As the plans unfold for the Festival of the Allies, which will open in a burst of glory with a street parade, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the populace may be prepared to participate in quite the most stupendous function El Paso has had since the outbreak of the war—and there has been nearly every money-raising scheme imaginable to coral the fashionable set and its dollars. But this is not exactly a fund-raising affair. It was planned primarily as a town fete in reward for constant giving. If there is to be any silver lining left in one's pocket, it is apt to find its way clinking into the Red Cross fund via the carnival route.

Reverting to the parade—Miss Mary Gates Redmond, who represents America, queen of the festival of the Allies, will be the principal figure on the float of the Allies, surrounded by the following constellation of beauties: Miss Alice Miles, England; Miss Mary White, France; Miss Edna Davis, Belgium; Miss Frances Marie, Greece; Miss Valerie Lorie, Japan; Miss Edna Davis, Belgium; Miss Frances Marie, Greece; Miss Valerie Lorie, Japan; Miss Edna Davis, Belgium; Miss Frances Marie, Greece; Miss Valerie Lorie, Japan.

cherry blossoms and chrysanthemums. It is in the Japanese tea garden that the cabaret will be staged—Miss "Shoe" a night with a change in the personnel of the bill Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Mrs. H. H. Stark, chairman of the cabaret committee, augmented by Mrs. W. B. Brown, Mrs. U. S. Stewart, Mrs. Charles N. Russell, Mrs. J. W. McHenry and Mrs. Horace B. Stevens, Jr., have arranged for a special matinee Saturday afternoon for the children. Songs and dances by good looking men and women, in costume, will be featured, and a pretty surprise and dancing contest, from El Paso's best known Mexican cantoneros, are to do bewitching dances and songs. There will also be several talented soldiers from Fort Bliss in specialties.

Miss Nellie May Bowen, Miss Pauline Bryan, Miss Emily Kemp, Miss Vera Groves, Miss Lucile Harlan, Miss Clara B. Brown, Miss Marion Brown and Miss Lydia Harper are among the Honolulu maidens who will charm with their daintiest moves of the tropical islands, softly sung to the accompaniment of ukuleles and small banjos. America, queen of the festival of the Allies, will be the principal figure on the float of the Allies, surrounded by the following constellation of beauties: Miss Alice Miles, England; Miss Mary White, France; Miss Edna Davis, Belgium; Miss Frances Marie, Greece; Miss Valerie Lorie, Japan; Miss Edna Davis, Belgium; Miss Frances Marie, Greece; Miss Valerie Lorie, Japan; Miss Edna Davis, Belgium; Miss Frances Marie, Greece; Miss Valerie Lorie, Japan.

MISS FRANCES MAE LOCKETT, one of the prettiest girls in this part of Texas, and just now much absorbed in her work at El Paso high. Miss Lockett is one of the sponsors, which carries with it the highest sort of honors, such as serving as hostess at all the brilliant functions of the school set during the year and assisting the cadets whenever possible.

Miss LaVon Sorrells, a great chum of Miss Lockett, is also a sponsor, and shares in the popularity of this attractive bevy of sub-beds.

Delightful Surprise Party Is Given in Honor of Mrs. Garrett

A SURPRISE post-nuptial shower was extended Mrs. J. C. Garrett (a bride of the week and before marriage Miss Mattie Lee Mahan) on Friday afternoon, by the women of Westminster Presbyterian church and the primary Sunday school class which this popular girl has led for many months. The merry event was held in the Sunday school room, beautified in flags and bunting, and Mrs. Garrett's first intimation of the honor came as the Mendelssohn wedding march was played and two little tots in flimsy and dainty white and blue ribbons and topped with a wedding bell. Assembled as participants were the complimented bride and her mother, Mrs. J. J. Mahan, Mrs. J. J. Mahan, Jr., Mrs. Lee McIntosh, Mrs. J. K. Prather, Mrs. M. S. Dawson, Mrs. W. L. McConnel, Mrs. J. H. James, Miss Mary Hearn, Mrs. John H. Grant, Mrs. Van Mills, Mrs. W. M. Fairley, Mrs. J. M. Hill, Mrs. L. Simpson, Mrs. H. H. Hackett, Mrs. J. W. Mosley, Mrs. C. W. Croom, Mrs. H. D. Camp, Mrs. E. A. Sheldon, Mrs. A. E. Fike, Mrs. J. J. March, Mrs. Bradford Hardie, Miss N. B. Staniel, Mrs. Annie Greger and Mrs. C. E. Bryan.

At 5 o'clock, Lieut. Garrett called for his wife, to report "for orders" at Fort Bliss. To their added astonishment, the happy young couple were presented with a grey motor chest containing a dozen silver bouillottes, properly inscribed for troop 13 of the eighth cavalry and presented by them at mess, the head sergeant making the felicitous speech.

El Pasoans Returning.

Mrs. W. M. Butler, Mrs. Henry Eschlar and Miss Sarah May Butler have returned from California, and are receiving a warm welcome.

Following a visit of several days at the Ponder ranch, Mrs. B. M. G. Williams returned to El Paso on Saturday morning, to reside over her father's home, where she is well known.

Horace W. Broadbent returned Saturday from a trip to Miles, Mrs. Broadbent, where he was called by the illness of his mother. The latter, who lives with another son in the ranch of eastern Montana, is much improved.

His friends are welcoming Margaret Buckler Stevenson home for a month's visit, this charming prima donna having arrived Monday from Chicago, where she is with her mother, at the Yveta ranch, until her departure to resume grand opera roles in Chicago, in which she is winning great success.

Kryptoks

Two lenses in one—without the unsightly line of division of the old type. Kryptoks are the perfected double vision lens.

Elderly men and women need a lens that enables them to see perfectly "far and near." The "Kryptok" is the scientific double vision lens for this purpose.

Let us show you the difference. Kryptoks will not only make you look years younger—but will give you the full advantage of an absolutely perfect correction. Don't neglect your eyes. A semi-annual examination is to be recommended.

Since 1907 our optical service has been regarded as the standard of the Southwest.
